

National Coalition of 100 Black Women – Oakland Bay Area

Welcome Prospective Member

Thank you for your interest in our organization. The Oakland Bay Area Chapter, of the National Coalition of 100 Black Women, Inc. is a group of dynamic, African American women, who are committed to the empowerment of Women and Girls in our respective communities. We are looking for women who have demonstrated experience working to improve their communities, who need to feel that what they do has real purpose and makes a difference!

We are particularly interested in women leaders with knowledge and skills in program development, fund development, grant writing, web development, finance and public relations/marketing. If you are interested in learning more about our organization and future events please complete our Membership Profile and send to:
