

2024 National Coalition of One Hundred Black Women Scholarship Program

Black women continue to make advances in business, education, and science while nurturing others to transform families, communities, and the world. When they add formal education to their innate capabilities, the world experiences exponential growth. We know this to be true.

We are proud to offer scholarship opportunities to local young women scholars, working women, and to partner with Main Street Launch to offer entrepreneurial scholarships to both young women and men. Please visit our website onehundredblackwomen.com for more information. The application deadline is Saturday, May 1, 2024.
